Dear Fire Service Personnel,

Please join me for the "South Carolina Weekend" at the National Fire Academy (NFA) in Emmitsburg, MD. This weekend event will be August 10-12, 2012. Eight classes will be offered as well as several networking opportunities.

The deadline to register is June 5. The attachment contains detailed information regarding the weekend program.

In closing, the National Fire Academy is located in a region of our country with a great deal of history that can also be applied to leadership and learning. In fact, Gettysburg National Military Park (battlefield) is 10 miles north of the NFA. I encourage a visit to this "hallowed ground." It is truly inspirational.

Thank you for your service and stay safe.
